COMPETITION

Here's something with a Wimbledon twist, an SW19 question:

Each of the following 8 definitions is a word with one letter repeated. List the repeated letters, (once), & then rearrange into the name of someone who has been playing at Wimbledon this year. Are they still seeded or have they been weeded out yet?

1. African ant eater.
2. Can he reduce your tax bill?
3. Calculating the sum.
4. A scout rally for example.
5. Pre-internet device for relating a story.
6. Soldier shouting about his living quarters.
7. Scottish waters with a mystery beast?
8. He's the man, (or she's the woman), to dig out your canal.

Go on, give it a try. If you want a clue ask Peter or Mike who might point you in the right direction! First correct answer, e-mailed to peter@eardisleytennis.co.uk wins a Wimbledon related mystery prize!

PS Charles is banned! As the winner of the last competition he's supplying the prize for this one so, logically, he won't want to win it!!!!

HOUSEKEEPING STUFF

We had a great time at the open day & BBQ last Saturday. Lots of kids enjoyed the activities; plenty of prizes all round. Competitors pitted themselves against the speed machine with Julian fastest at 100mph, Emma at 61mph & our junior champion was Owen Jones at 41 mph; not bad hey. The raffle & 100 numbers game raised welcome funds along with other contributions. A big thank you to everyone who got stuck in and helped. It was a lovely summers evening for everyone. Thanks to those that supported it & we missed you if you didn't make it.
